Dear Myles Horton,

I hope this letter finds you well. I am writing to express my support and encouragement for your continued efforts in the struggle for civil rights. Your work is crucial in the fight against injustice and oppression.

The situation in Montgomery continues to be challenging. Despite the recent victories in voter registration, we must remain vigilant. The struggle for freedom and equality is far from over. It requires persistence and dedication from all of us.

Please accept my warm regards and know that we are all齐心协力 to overcome these obstacles.

Yours sincerely,

Durr, Virginia Foster
